Chapter 1: Criminal Procedures

In This Chapter:

In this chapter, you will find the clerical procedures for the following:

- CRIMINAL FELONY CASES

Felonies are serious crimes with a possible punishment of over one (1) year in prison. Due to the seriousness of the offenses, the proceedings involve several court appearances in both the magistrate/metropolitan (metro) court and district court. NMSA 1978, § 30-1-6 A.

The process begins with the filing of a complaint in magistrate (metro) court or with a grand jury indictment which is filed directly in district court. If the person is indicted, the court appearances in magistrate (metro) court are eliminated.

In an initial appearance before the magistrate (metro) court, the defendant is advised of his/her rights and his/her right to the appointment of counsel. The initial appearance must occur within forty-eight (48) hours after custody commences. RULE 6-203 NMRA, RULE 7-203 NMRA

The magistrate court (metro) sets a preliminary hearing date either at the initial appearance or shortly thereafter. The hearing must be set within ten (10) days if the defendant is in custody or sixty (60) days if the defendant is not in custody. RULE 6-203 NMRA, RULE 7-203 NMRA

For felony cases, preliminary hearings are held in magistrate (metro) court to determine whether a crime has been committed and whether there is cause to believe the defendant committed the crime. At the preliminary hearing, the judge hears testimony and considers the case record to make a finding. The judge then will either order the defendant bound over to district court where the district attorney will file a criminal information or the judge will dismiss the case.

The basic steps in the felony process in district court are outlined in the following section.

Definitions:

Information RULE 5-201 C. NMRA

An information is a written statement, signed by the district attorney, containing the essential facts, common name of the offense and a specific section number of the New Mexico Statutes which defines the offense.

An information may be filed only in the district court. Informations shall be substantially in the form approved by the court administrator, and shall state the names of all witnesses upon whose testimony the information is based.

Indictment RULE 5-201 D. NMRA

An indictment is a written statement returned by a grand jury containing the essential facts constituting the offense, common name of the offense and a specific section number of the New Mexico Statutes which defines the offense.

All indictments shall be signed by the foreman of the grand jury. Indictments shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the court administrator.

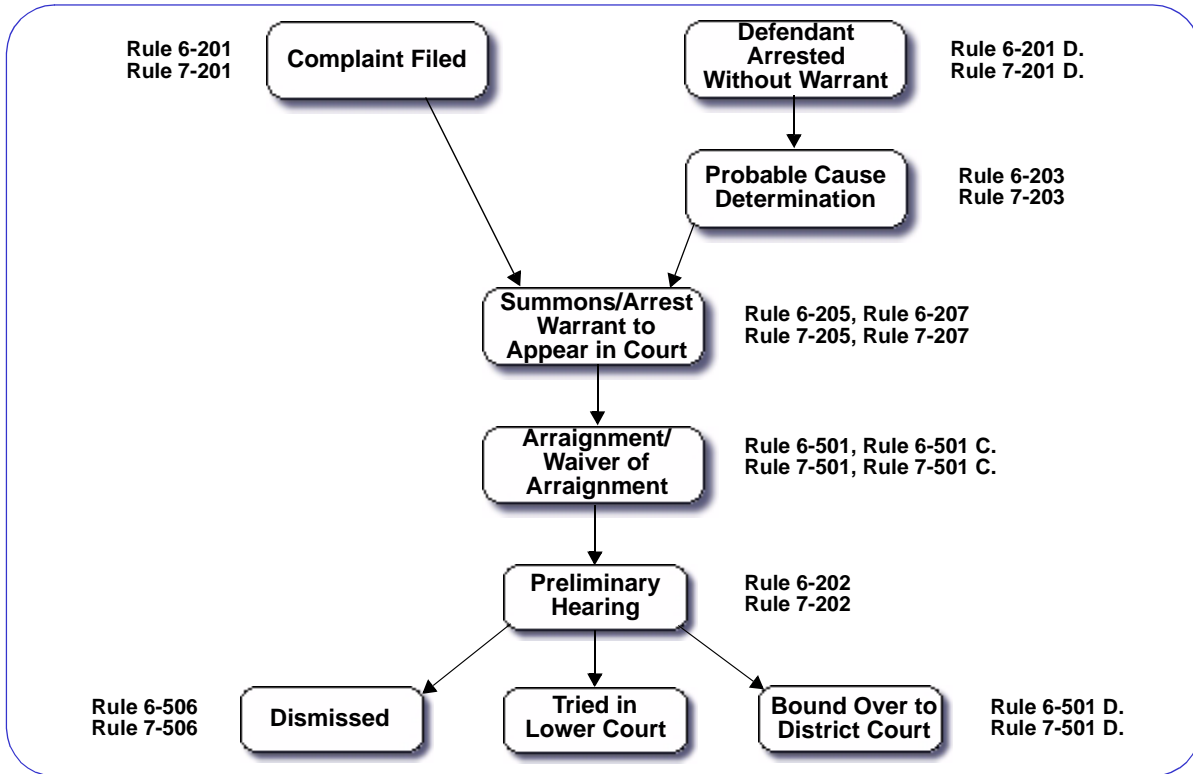

The names of all witnesses upon whose testimony an indictment is based shall appear on the indictment.
